BOONVILLE MAN SENTENCED FOR BEING A FELON IN POSSESSION OF A FIREARM

PRESS RELEASE

Indianapolis - David J. Nalley, 36, Boonville, Indiana, was sentenced to 12 months in prison today by U.S. District Judge Richard L. Young following his guilty plea to felon in possession of a firearm on April 2, 2009, announced Timothy M. Morrison, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana. This case was the result of a investigation by the Bureau of Alcohol Tobacco Firearms and Explosives.

Between May 24, 2006 and February 25, 2008, Nalley possessed a firearm after he had sustained two separate felony convictions between 2002 and 2003 in Vanderburgh County, Indiana. The firearm, a Remington, model 870 Special Purpose, .12 gauge shotgun, was submitted to a pawn shop on six separate occasions by Nalley.

According to Assistant U.S. Attorney Todd S. Shellenbarger, who prosecuted the case for the government, Judge Young also imposed 3 years supervised release following Nalley's release from prison.
